

If you combine a love of music and a concern for the environment

PRESENTS:

THREE CANE WHALE

LIVE AT THE OLD BARN
7 JULY 2016

Do join us for supper, a drink and Three Cane Whale performing live at the Old Barn, Kelston Roundhill.

The evening will be live recorded by Kelston Records. Three Cane Whale comprises the multi-instrumentalists Alex Vann, Pete Judge and Paul Bradley and their music holds broad appeal from Radio 3 to Radio 6 music audiences.

Kelston Records is a new indie record label working with artists with a special link to location and environment.

It is a collaboration between the Kelston Tump partnership, Johnny Barden of Bath Spa University's technical services team and Steve Henwood of Bath Fringe and The Bell Inn co-op.

TICKETS ARE £10 IN ADVANCE (£14 ON THE NIGHT).

YOU CAN ALSO BOOK AN OPTIONAL MEAL IN ADVANCE FOR £15.

BOOKING FEE APPLIES. THERE WILL BE A CASH BAR.
